Energy Seminar Planned for October

SCRANTON, PA, October 5, 2007—The Greater Scranton Chamber of Commerce will host an informational breakfast seminar entitled, “Pennsylvania’s Changing Energy Landscape: Opportunities and Challenges.” The seminar will be held on October 17, 2007 at 8:30 AM at the Chamber, 222 Mulberry Street in downtown Scranton. The featured speaker is Thomas Tuffey, Director, Penn Future Center for Enterprise and Environment. The seminar is sponsored by the Chamber, the Lackawanna College Environmental Institute (through grants from the Scranton Area Foundation), and Lackawanna Heritage Valley Authority.

The seminar will review the new energy landscape and discuss the opportunities and challenges that businesses face in northeastern Pennsylvania. In addition, Mr. Tuffey will address the Commonwealth’s new renewable energy policies including its mandates, regulations, financial incentives and tax considerations.

There is no fee to attend this seminar, but seating is limited. The deadline for registrations is October 15. To register for the seminar and other upcoming Chamber events visit www.scrantonchamber.com. For more information contact Kristine Augustine at 570.342.7711 or at kaugustine@scrantonchamber.com.
