Chamber to Hold E-mail Disclosure Seminar

SCRANTON, PA, January 7, 2008—The Greater Scranton Chamber of Commerce is hosting a seminar entitled “FRCP...What it is and why it’s so important to your business.” The seminar will be held Thursday, January 24, 2008 at 8:30 AM in the board room of the Chamber, 222 Mulberry Street in downtown Scranton. Dan Summa, President, SECCAS, LLC is the featured speaker.

Email has changed the world and how we communicate. How acceptable is an email in court? Is your company protecting valuable information you may need to rely on one day? At the seminar, Mr. Summa will discuss the “Amendments to the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure” (FRCP) and their significance regarding what is acceptable for discovery and disclosure in legal cases. He will also discuss how the FRCP affects every business, organization, and person who may be involved in a federal court case.

The cost of the seminar is free for Chamber members and $10 for non-members. The deadline for registration is Monday, January 21, 2008. Seating is limited! To register for this seminar and other upcoming Chamber events, visit www.scrantonchamber.com. For more information contact Bill Hlavacek, 570.342.7711, email whlavacek@scrantonchamber.com.
