OSHA Compliance Workshop Scheduled

SCRANTON, PA, February 21, 2007—MetroAction, Inc. and CDE Training have teamed up to offer an “OSHA Compliance Workshop” from 8:15 AM to 3:00 PM on March 6 and 13 at The Greater Scranton Chamber of Commerce, 222 Mulberry Street in Scranton. Taught by an OSHA-authorized instructor, this 10-hour workshop will provide participants with two days of intensive review of current topics in the area of occupational safety and health compliance.

Attendees of this workshop will receive practical, proven safety information that they can implement at their worksite, including how to eliminate potential hazards and violations to keep every part of the worksite in compliance, how to handle OSHA inspections like a professional, how to read and interpret OSHA regulations, and how to identify OSHA regulations that applicable to your worksite.

The workshop will also cover topics such as ergonomics, hazardous materials, machine safeguarding, electrical safety, and more. It is ideal for operations managers, manufacturing and production supervisors, safety coordinators and all others with the responsibility of operations and personnel management. Upon completion of the required hours, all attendees will receive their OSHA certification card.

The cost for the workshop is $150 per person for Chamber members and $225 per person for non-members. The registration fee includes lunch and course materials. To register, log on to www.scrantonchamber.com or contact Katie James at 570.342.7711 or kjames@scrantonchamber.com.

MetroAction, Inc. is a non-profit community development organization that provides small business financing and training. Over the past nine years, MetroAction has provided more than $2 million in small business loans to more than 140 businesses throughout northeastern PA.
