Chamber to Hold Dunder Mifflin Uncommon Stockholders Meeting at Convention

SCRANTON, PA, October 15, 2007—Fans of NBC's hit comedy "The Office" will be descending upon Scranton in a few weeks to attend the first "Office Convention." Convention goers can attend the Dunder Mifflin "Uncommon Stockholder's Meeting" and get a free, limited edition gift.

The Greater Scranton Chamber of Commerce is conducting a Dunder Mifflin Uncommon Stockholder's Meeting on Saturday, October 27, 2007 at 2:00 PM at The Mall at Steamtown. The Uncommon Stockholders Meeting is part of The Office Convention, which is slated for the weekend of October 26 through October 28. Attendees at the Dunder Mifflin Uncommon Stockholder's Meeting will receive a free, numbered, limited edition, Dunder Mifflin uncommon stock certificate.

Uncommon stock certificates will be available for pick-up at The Mall at Steamtown starting at 10:00 AM. Also, cardboard cutouts of the stars from the show will be placed in various locations throughout The Mall at Steamtown, presenting excellent photograph opportunities for fans and visitors.

At the Dunder Mifflin Uncommon Stockholder's Meeting, actors and actresses from The Northeast Theatre will join talent from Hollywood and engage in an unscripted board meeting. "The Office' is great entertainment. Scranton's Office Convention will bring Hollywood and the fans together in a fun setting. Commingling will be encouraged," stated Austin J. Burke, president, the Chamber.
