Chamber to Hold Open House BBQ

SCRANTON, PA, September 14, 2007—The board of directors of The Greater Scranton Chamber of Commerce invites area businesses to attend the annual Open House BBQ on Friday, October 5, 2007, from noon to 1:30 PM at the Chamber, 222 Mulberry Street, Scranton. The Open House BBQ serves as the kickoff to “Chamber month,” which is a celebration of Chamber members for their contributions to the community.

The Open House BBQ presents a unique opportunity for area businesses to learn about how they can benefit from a Chamber membership. Chamber departments including membership, communications, industrial development, and loan financing will be at the event to provide information and answer questions. Information for Chamber*Choice*, the healthcare program of the Chamber, will be available. Most importantly, interested businesses will be able to speak with members to learn first-hand about Chamber membership. In addition, the event presents an opportunity for networking, which allows members to grow their network of business contacts.

“We have a lot to offer area businesses,” stated Scott J. Weiland, communications director, the Chamber. “The Open House BBQ presents a terrific opportunity for area businesses to meet the Chamber board and staff, and to learn directly from members about how the Chamber presents opportunities for businesses to grow.”

The event is free to attend and is open to member and non-member area businesses. To register, log on to www.scrantonchamber.com or contact Marie Ferraro at 570.342.7711 or at mferraro@scrantonchamber.com. The registration deadline is Wednesday, October 3.
