Tidgewell Associates joins Scranton Enterprise Center Business Incubator Program

SCRANTON, PA, August 27, 2007—Scranton Lackawanna Industrial Building Company (SLIBCO) announced today that Tidgewell Associates, Inc. (TAI) has been approved for tenancy within the Scranton Enterprise Center (SEC) Business Incubator program.

Tidgewell Associates, Inc. provides customized software solutions for healthcare, behavioral health and human service organizations. TAI Software solutions are customized to work with clients existing data and leverage existing technology investments, while providing innovative solutions to help achieve maximum efficiency in clinical, financial, and administrative management.

“Tidgewell Associates has provided software solutions in the Scranton area for a number of years. We began hiring local staff in 2006 to work at client sites,” stated Mark Tidgewell, president of Tidgewell Associates. “We are excited by the opportunity provided to us by The Scranton Enterprise Center Business Incubator Program and we are looking forward to expanding staff and our presence in Scranton.”

The SEC, located at 201 Lackawanna Avenue in downtown Scranton, is a $10 million facility that is a 64,000 square foot facility on three floors. Approximately 12,000 square feet of available lease space was dedicated to develop a business incubator for start-up and existing businesses in northeastern Pennsylvania. The balance of the space is designated to anchor tenants, including the McCann School of Business and Technology and TMG Health.

“We are delighted to have Tidgewell Associates, Inc. as a Business Incubator tenant at the Scranton Enterprise Center,” said Austin J. Burke, executive vice president of SLIBCO.

SLIBCO is The Greater Scranton Chamber of Commerce’s “bricks and mortar” arm, and has constructed most of Lackawanna County’s industrial, business, office, and technology parks. In addition, SLIBCO has constructed and owns five major buildings totaling approximately 1 million square feet. Since its creation in 1946, SLIBCO working in concert with the Chamber’s other development arms has developed more than 2,700 acres and has spearheaded more than 348 major development projects. These projects have created more than 20,000 jobs and have added more than $570 million in new real estate investment to the local economy.
