Women's Network Scheduled for Fall

SCRANTON, PA, August 23, 2007— The Greater Scranton Chamber of Commerce Women's Network has announced its fall 2007 series.

September 19, 2007

"Balancing Family & Work...How do women do it all?"

Presented by Nicole Keller

Vice President of Marketing & Community Impact, United Way of Lackawanna County Sponsored by Fidelity Deposit & Discount Bank

October 17, 2007

"Going Green...Our Social Responsibility"

Presented by Tracy Nelson Wescott

LEED AP Consultant, joseph/rominski/architecture

Sponsored by Fidelity Deposit & Discount Bank

November 21, 2007

"Entrepreneurship...When is it an option?"

Presented by Mary Tellie

Owner, Electric City Roasting

Sponsored by Fidelity Deposit & Discount Bank

Each session features a guest speaker who is an expert in a field relevant to women in today's professional environment, and provides a unique insight on the chosen topics. These presentations contribute to the Women's Network mission, which strives to enable women to meet informally to discuss relevant professional and personal topics during monthly networking sessions.

Sessions are held monthly at a Chamber member business. Chamber members may bring 100 brochures or business cards to be displayed on information tables at the event. The fall 2007 sessions will be held at noon at the Ramada Clarks Summit Hotel, 820 Northern Boulevard, Clarks Summit, PA. Luncheons are $20 for Chamber members and $30 for non-members. Reservations are required and must be paid in advance by check or credit card. Secure, online registration is available online at www.scrantonchamber.com. For more information, contact Mari Potis at mpotis@scrantonchamber.com or at 570.342.7711. More information is also available at www.scrantonchamber.com.
