Act 48 Hours!

TODAY'S STUDENTS.
TOMORROW'S WORKFORCE.

in collaboration with the Lackawanna County Workforce Development Board

AN INDUSTRY IMMERSION EXPERIENCE

Educators in the Workplace seeks to enhance classroom instruction, student learning, and career readiness for the workplace of today and tomorrow by connecting Lackawanna County educators with local business and industry leaders.

HOW IT WORKS

Based on your area of expertise, educators will be matched, to one of four five-day, industry-specific experiences featuring two days of in-classroom learning sessions and three days of on-site business engagements. It's like job shadowing for adults! These experiences will allow educators to enhance what they are already doing in the classroom by:

- › Participating in and exploring career pathways in local businesses and industries
- › Interacting directly with leaders of the business community, gaining insight on the skills students need to be successful in their future careers
- › Establishing connections to business and industry leaders in Lackawanna County's leading and emerging industry sectors
- › Learning about local businesses and employment opportunities

WHO IS ELIGIBLE?

- ☉ Teachers from Kindergarten to 12th Grade
- ☉ Guidance Counselors
- ☉ Administrators
- ☉ Career & Technical Education Instructors

WHY PARTICIPATE?

- › Employers are experiencing challenges in recruiting, hiring and retaining a skilled workforce.
- › A skilled workforce is critical to future business growth and ultimately, our region's well-being.
- › Curricula can build job readiness and strengthen the skills that are most crucial to employers.
- › With a clear picture of where the jobs of today and tomorrow are, educators can help students make informed decisions on their future career pathway and raise awareness of job opportunities in Lackawanna County.
- › By enhancing the collaborative efforts of the business and education communities, educators can enrich their career education instruction and counseling efforts and businesses will gain valuable insight on the local educational landscape.
